Are you bringing a quad bike, moped, go-ped, etc.?

Yes / No

If yes, insurance details must be presented at booking in on arrival to obtain a numbered sticker to enable the vehicle to be used on site by the insured.

Showground Etiquette: The organisers' objective is to hold a relaxed family show with a minimum of rules and restrictions. Please cooperate with show safety and legal requirements to help ensure its success.

Traders: All traders to have Public Liability or third-party risk insurance. Documentation is to be available for inspection at any time by the show Organisers or Health and Safety Officers.

Stallholders must be equipped with a fire extinguisher on their pitch at all times and a completed fire risk assessment form which will be included in the welcome pack.

Weapons: The display and/or sale of deactivated weapons at the show is allowed if the vendor or owner has a British proof house certificate of deactivation. The certificate should be attached to the weapon or ready for inspection by the Police. Replica guns or guns manufactured solely as blank firing devices can be sold or displayed. Live firing or blank ammunition is not allowed to be displayed, sold or brought onto the showground. No BB guns or air rifles to be used on site except in any designated organised ranges.

The display and sale of inert explosive devices is only allowed if the vendor or owner can demonstrate that the item has been previously dismantled to prove that it is free from explosives. The item must have a label attached to declare that it is free from explosive material. The show organisers do not accept any responsibility or liability for the inspection of the device.

Anti-Semitism: The display of anti-Semitic literature and artefacts is strictly forbidden. If any of this material is found you will be asked to leave the showground and not welcome back.

Noise: Please keep unnecessary noise (for example: music, sirens, gunfire and pyrotechnics) to a minimum from 6.30pm to 8.30am.

Further Information: The welcome pack will include details of the shows rules and regulations, which you are expected to abide by.

- I/We agree to abide by the rules of the event and show site and also to obey the instructions of the officials while on the show site.
- Our display will be in place by 9.00am and not break down before 6.00pm on show days and our participants will behave at all times in a manner acceptable for a family event.
- I am aware and will conform to Somerset County Council Trading Standards (contact direct for further information on: 01823 357261).
- I/We will not use a BB gun on site or sell to underage persons.
